Wafaa El-Sadr Delivers Annual Arthur Ashe AIDS Endowment Lecture

In commemoration of World AIDS Day 2007, Wafaa El-Sadr, MD, professor of Epidemiology and Medicine and director of the International Center for AIDS Care and Treatment Programs, delivered the annual Arthur Ashe AIDS Endowment Lecture at Weill Medical College of Cornell University with a lecture entitled, "Scale-up of HIV Treatment: Can It Transform Healthcare Services in Resource-limited Countries?"

Dr. El-Sadr served as the Arthur Ashe Visiting Professor at Weill Medical College, a program supported by The Arthur Ashe Endowment for the Defeat of AIDS, which was established in 1992 by the late tennis player and humanitarian.
